

Assistant Equality Society Leader

The role of the Assistant Society Leader is equally important as the post supports the Society Leader to enable Members of the Student Guild to engage in activities that complement areas of study and maximize their academic experience.

Applying for the role

Complete the relevant Application and Nomination section

- Email your Manifesto/photo, a 1-minute video and poster to guild.election@bil.ac.uk by Friday 28th January 2022
- Your manifesto can be in a poster format
See previous examples <https://www.bil-guild.org/candidate-manifesto/>

Tips:

Be creative; Tell people about you; What you are studying and what you aim to achieve in the role (See job description)

Next Stage

Once your application is successful the Student Guild will support you and your campaign.

You will receive:

- FREE T-Shirt to be worn during the election period to raise your profile
- You will receive support with campaign materials.
- You will be interviewed on the Guild Show aired on Bloomsbury Radio.
- Campaign, Husting and Voting take place end of January.
- Refer to the Election Policy for more information at www.bil-guild.org

Note:

- Manifesto's must not contain any offensive or defamatory content.
- Voting is open to all Student Guild members if you are interested in becoming an engaged and active member of the Society.
- For additional support or guidance feel free to contact the Guild Manager (guild.manager@bil.ac.uk) or visit <https://www.bil-guild.org/election-posts/>
